

K-Love is very inspiring to me and my family. It provides clean listening that the whole family can enjoy. Taking K-Love off the air would be devastating to people who listen to it for encouragement throughout the day. When I listen to K-Love while driving in traffic, it makes me calm. I can get consumed at times with bad drivers and have bitterness towards them. When I am listening to K-Love I realize what is most important, that is Christ.